WE

WE WOULD

WHERE FRIENDSHIPS
GROW

WE WERE CONFIDENT IN

AND SO WERE

WE STRUGGLED TO BE THE

AND REACHED FOR THE

WE COULDN'T DO THIS . . .

WITHOUT
CLOSE FRIENDS,

WHO

WE CELEBRATED THE SPECIAL DAYS...

Eastglen's first ever Oktoberfest was a big success. Students Union had fun organizing and planning it, but the true fun came out on the day of the event. Some of the highlights included Kobasa eating contest, Rootbear Chug-a-lugging and the Polka contest which incidentally was won by Mr. Ferderer and Miss Darrah. Congratulations! Hopefully this event will become a tradition at Eastglen. A special thanks to Janice Wenger and Mrs. "C".

DRESSED
MOST UNUSUAL
COSTUMES

WE SHARED THE OUTDOORS,

PHYS. ED 30 CAMP 1985

'Twas the night before hometime at the P.ED. 30 camp
Our hair is so dirty; our clothes are so damp

All the food we consumed without a care
But back home on the scale we'll probably despair

The canoes we left tied up at home
Because we feared icebergs on the Lake Brazeau

The weather on Wednesday was better than ever
It's because Veronica said "Bad weather? No way - never!"

Scary stories were told the first night, you see
And Shakuntla and Debbie were scared out of their trees

Rescue a watch from an outhouse - impossible you say?
Just ask Diane and company and they just may!

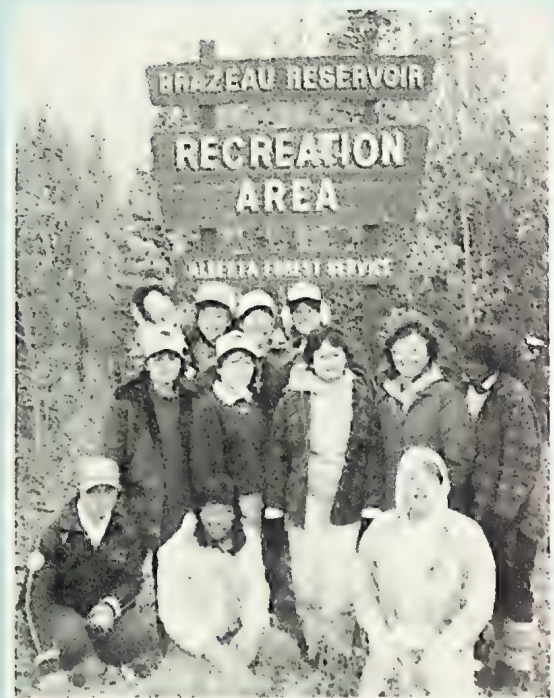

The bugs got to Krystal - wasps, spiders, and bees
She'll be glad when it's winter - too cold for them to be

Shakuntla and Janet survived and even had fun
Although rookies, their camping days aren't over and done

We hiked and told stories and even shot skeet
Now we can't wait to get home to wash these smelly feet

Each night round the campfire we talked and had fun
And then into our tents, the talking still not done!

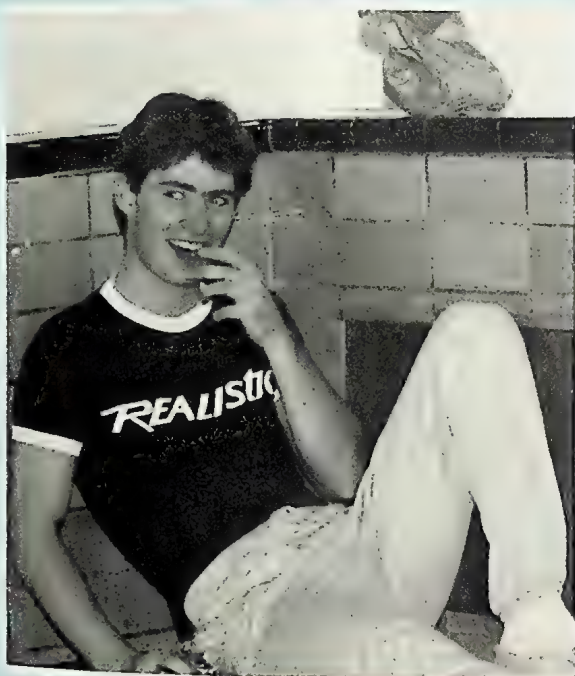

Just remember when you're older, a mother, and a wife
You'll tell your children how you spent three great days of your life!

LAUGHING
FUN,

BUT WE ALSO
SAT AROUND,

DREAMING OF
THINGS UNDONE, FOR WE . . .

WE WERE REWARDED

CHOIR

The choral club met during lunch hours to strengthen their voices for events. At christmas time they sang for the school one week before the holidays in the rotunda and encouraged passing students to join them. They also hosted a group of elementary schools and sang for them at the closing of their presentations. Members of the choir included: Mae Baird, April Ingham, Veronica Kooyman, Shelley Kowalchuk, Elizabeth Welch, Sandra West, Myrna Kampjes, Nadine Robinson, Karen Stannard, Devi Manzevich and Steven Veen. Miss Dackiw headed the choir, and we're sure everyone had a great year!

DRAMA

The drama club, headed by Mrs. Boisvert, practices everyday after school doing various skits and having fun. Each member has learned different things from the next and Mrs. Boisvert has shared her talents with them as well. Friendships have been made and shyness forgotten as these students stand on the stage and act their hearts out for those who wish to join them. They have performed in the Christmas show, the Variety show and some of these actors are also involved in the year play. Members include: Ian Racine, Ian Cummings, Scot Koculyn, Vivian LeBlanc, Dwayne Emmons, Blaine Emmons, Duane Cutrell, Kevin Whelan, Trevor Jacobson, Stephen Allen, Bruce Harold and Victoria Astrakan.

EASTGLEN'S CHEERING AGAIN!!

The enthusiasm and dedication of these girls pushed Eastglen into competing in 3 major competitions: CAHPER, Edmonton Zones and Provincial Championships. Each member contributed to our fund raising to buy new uniforms. Special thanks should go to Glenda for her strong leadership which gave us a good base to build on for next year.

SKIING

The Eastglen ski club had two trips this year. The first was to Banff where they spent one day on the slopes of Sunshine Village and the other day was spent at Lake Louise. The second trip was spent at Vernon during Teachers' Convention. Both ski trips were a great success and everyone returned with all their body parts intact.

BADMINTON

INTRAMURALS

The badminton club attracts students with keen minds, lightning speed and quick reflexes. This brute talent is displayed every Friday (and Monday at 8 p.m.) in Eastglens' gyms. This group is supervised and guided to great fun and exercise by Mr. Ambramowski.

The intramurals executive was behind the scenes in many of the sport events and lunch hour activities that happened throughout the year. Their efforts were appreciated by all those who participated in the activities. Back Row Left to Right: Theresa Anderon, Vivian LeBlanc, Shakuntla Sharma, Front Row: Brian Campbell, Mr. Palette

WEIGHTLIFTING

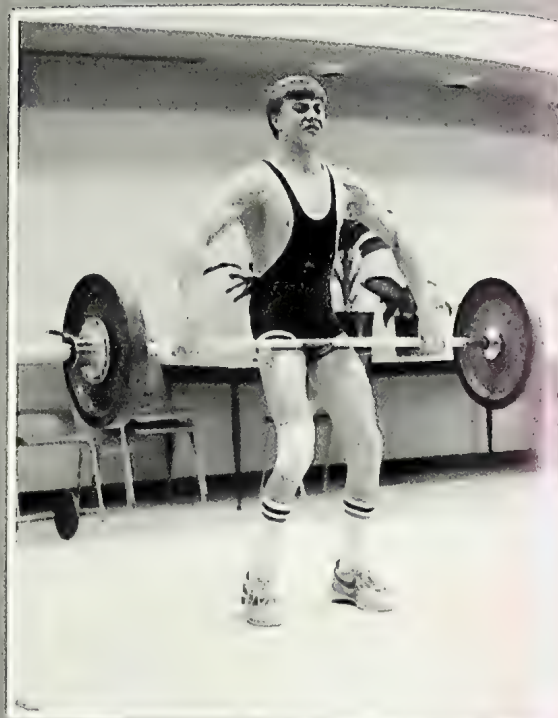

In the 52kg class, Ken Gundermen a second-year weightlifter. In the 56kg class, Perry Grinde a third-year weightlifter. In the 67.5kg class, Calvin Ensielet, a novice. In the 75kg class, Kent Sparrowhawk a first-year lifter and finally in 82.5kg class, Dwight McLean a fourth-year lifter.

Ken Gundreman took first place in the 52kg class easily and may be selected to go to the Canadian championships later this year. Perry Grinde took first place in the 56kg class, he also attempted, three times the high school weightlifting record of 205 pounds. Then came Calvin Ensielet, a novice who did extremely well. Then came Kent Sparrowhawk, a first-year lifter, who almost qualified at the high schools. He increased his total by 30kg. Then came Dwight McLean, who was going all out at every record. Dwight tied the record in his first attempt then eventually went on to break the high school snatch record. That was all for Dwight McLean that night. The team placed second over all losing to O'Leary by one point.

In the beginning we were willing and unknowing. As the year progressed, the task of putting a book together as important as this one became harder and more difficult. We soon came to realize that creating a yearbook and staying in a stable state of mind did not go hand in hand. We would like to thank Ms. Jewell and Miss Mondea for being there when we needed them. A special thanks goes out to Dennis Cambly who remained our guide and had confidence in us even when we didn't. Thank you to everyone who was involved in making the yearbook what it is.

Are doing the impossible
For the ungrateful.
We have done so much
For so long
With so little
We are now qualified
To do anything
With nothing.

PRINCIPALS' MESSAGE FOR 1985/86 YEARBOOK

Over the past year the staff at Eastglen have attempted to broaden your academic horizons and prepare you for the sea of life, where the proud are humbled, the shirker is exposed and the leader is revealed. To sail this sea will require all your ingenuity and the saged advice of your mentors:

- let a positive attitude be your fuel of progress.
- learn from the experiences of others.
- stand firmly for principles.
- broaden your interests.
- understand the rights of others.
- be reliable in your discharge of duty.

I trust the photos and captions in this yearbook will serve as a mirror of your memorable wake, as you sail forward into the Sea of Happiness.

THANKS GUYS!

Mr. Chan, a teacher with our math department, had to leave our school in 1985 for a period of time due to illness. In 1986, as the new semester opened, Eastglenites were glad to see Mr. Chan had returned. We would like to express our sympathy towards Mr. Chan as he had to leave Eastglen once again before the semester could come to a close. We hope that Mr. Chan returns in the coming 1986-87 year.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Hallo! I came to Canada on September 3rd and went back to Germany on December 6th. It seems very short to me, and I don't want to leave (or at least I'd like to stay longer!) My most enjoyable experiences at Eastglen were the dances and Oktoberfest where I was made honorary guest. It was very strange for me, the relationship between the students and their teachers, it is much friendlier here. I want to thank everybody who made my stay at your school so enjoyable! I know I'll come back to Canada someday because I like the country so much and I like the people (you guys) even more. I will never forget you. Bye and Danke. Irene Boche.

IRENE BOCHE GERMANY

SONIA DELGADO MEXICO

Hi! I'm an exchange student from Torreon, state of Coahuila in Mexico. I chose to come to Canada to learn English because I came with my parents two years ago to spend our summer holidays, and I liked Canada so much that I decided to come back. To me, Canada is a beautiful country; it has so many things to see and places to go, but the prettiest thing I have realized is that Canada has wonderful people.

Staying in Canada for the school year has been one of the nicest experiences I have ever had in my whole life. I have participated in the Cheerleaders' team, track & field team, and I also travelled to Banff on a ski trip and to Vancouver Expo '86 and all this enabled me to make a lot of new friends.

In this short letter I wish to thank everyone who has made my stay in Canada most enjoyable, especially those who gave me their friendship and help through the year. I hope that some of you will be able to visit me in Mexico.

I will never forget my experiences and memories of Eastglen, and I will miss you all.

Hasto Pronto!

DEFENSE

The Eastglen Senior Football team did exceptionally well this year. Being the smallest school (750 students) in the big school conference (1200 students) no one expected them to win a single game. But on the last day of the regular season, the UNDEFEATED Blue Devils were playing the Harry Ainley Titans for first place. Due to problems encountered in the fourth quarter, the Blue Devils lost their only regular season game and were now stated to meet the O'Leary Spartans in semi-finals. Morrissey, Coach Waterhouse, Coach Forrest, Chris Yallop, Jon Woods, Rob Frost, Todd McGrandle, Paul Pandur

The Junior Football team finished fourth in the North Division. They defeated Jasper Place in Division II semi-finals and then lost to Ross Shep in the city final. Team Captains were Tully Lutz, Scott Smith, Dave Sadoway, Deny Tse and Barry Beko. About half of the players will be moving up to senior football next year. The remaining players should form the nucleus of another strong junior team.

The junior girls had an exciting season against the city conference league this year. They displayed great competitive spirit and sportsmanship-like conduct throughout the season. This great group of grade ten girls hope to benefit from the experience they gained in their first year of competitive basketball. Thanks to all the fans and especially to our manager, Cherie Henderson. Keep working hard!

M. Darrah

The Junior boys basketball team, a small but enthusiastic group under new head coach, Mr. Glover, gave us a season of good entertaining basketball. They ended the season with about a 50-50 win-loss record but got knocked out of the play-offs in the first round. All the players look forward to the next basketball season.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

SENIOR MEN'S BASKETBALL

The Senior team had a difficult time this year due to the high turnover from last year's team. During the preliminary seeding round, we managed only two wins as opposed to six defeats. This placed us in the City Conference. We lost a few close games in this conference, but won enough that we were able to gain the final berth in the play-offs. Our play had improved and just before play-offs began we were finally playing a tough and enthusiastic style of basketball.

The Devils carried the style of ball into the play-offs and pulled a stunning upset over first place O'Leary Spartans. We then lost in semi-final play to Bonnie Doon Lancers (56-54). The Lancers then won the City Conference championship.

Coach Lambert extends a hearty congratulations to all his players, who stuck it out through a very trying and demanding season.

The Senior Men's Volleyball Team completed the 1985 season with a winning record after the initial seeding rounds.

The team finished 13th overall this year, a climb of three places over last year, achieving the goal they had set for themselves at the beginning of the season.

Modey Amerey represented Eastglen at the NAIT all-star tournament in November 1985. The team also continued their friendly competition with the F.H. Colin's Warriors, Whitehorse, Yukon. Our Devils lost but played well and gave the Warriors some good competition.

Congratulations to all players for their efforts throughout the season.

JUNIOR

The Junior Devils began the 1985 season with ten rookies. Unfortunately the team lacked the leadership of more skilled and experienced returning veterans. What the team lacked in experience they made up for in character and enthusiasm. The hi-light of the 1985 season saw the Junior Devils defeat the 1984 defending champions, Ross Sheppard T-Birds in the play-offs at the Titan Classic Tournament. Now with one season's experience behind them, the Junior Devils are sure to be a force in 1986-87.

Eastglen's Senior Girls Volleyball Team started the year on a dismal note losing their first five matches but rallied to win seven of their last nine matches to finish the league play with a 7-7 record. Eight of the ten girls are returning for next year and predict honours and glory for the '86 year. With the year's added experience and key additions from the junior team, Parm predicts they will be awesome.

JUNIOR VOLLEYBALL

Middle Row: Charmaine Minde, Sheralee Rac, Monique Thievin, Helen Poon, Mrs. Hayes
Front Row: Jolie Workun, Theresa Troukalas, Brenda Kopchia, Jakki Dunlop

Although the Junior Girls Volleyball Team did not have a winning season, they certainly showed enthusiasm and an improvement in their play over the season. They made a fine effort in every match played.

SENIOR BOYS SOCCER

The Senior Boys Soccer team had an exciting and prosperous year. They finished second place in their division, but unfortunately lost out to Ross Shepard in the quarter finals of the premier division. We're proud of these fine young men.

The senior girls soccer team put a lot of effort and hard work into their practices and games. Everyone enjoyed the challenge and they hope to have a successful year next year. Back Row Left to Right: Coach Steve Fuerderer, Sheri Kubbernus, Donna Wasylycia, Karima Velji, Dana Forfylow, Michelle Willey, Jackie Dunlop, Cliff Brambly (COACH). These students went on a three day excursion to EXPO '86. Residing in hostels at night, they paced the grounds of EXPO during the day. Pavilions, rides, monuments and statues of all sorts made up most of the grounds but these students found that a mere three days could not possibly quench their thirst for the excitement that surrounded EXPO. From May to October this event has brought people from all corners of the earth and beyond and Eastglennites that have already experienced EXPO advise everyone at Eastglen to take in the event.

FORT MCMURRAY VISITS EASTGLEN

On March 18th a group of Fort McMurray students came to Edmonton to see the ever popular Mark Scharinbroch. While they were here, they were graciously hosted by Eastglen students. In only a few days, many special friendships were created. We enjoyed having Fort McMurray here and hope that in the future, opportunities such as these will arise for future Eastglenites.

FOREVER YOUNG

Let's dance in style
Let's dance for a while
Heaven can wait
We're only watching the skies
Hoping for the best
But expecting the worst
Are you going to drop the bomb or not???
Let us die young or let us live forever
We don't have the power
But we never say never
Sitting in a sandpit,
Life is a short trip
The music's for the sad men
Can you imagine when this race is won??
Turn our golden faces into the sun
Praising our leaders
We're getting in tune
The music's played by the madmen
Forever young, I want to be forever young
Do you really want to live forever
Forever -- and ever

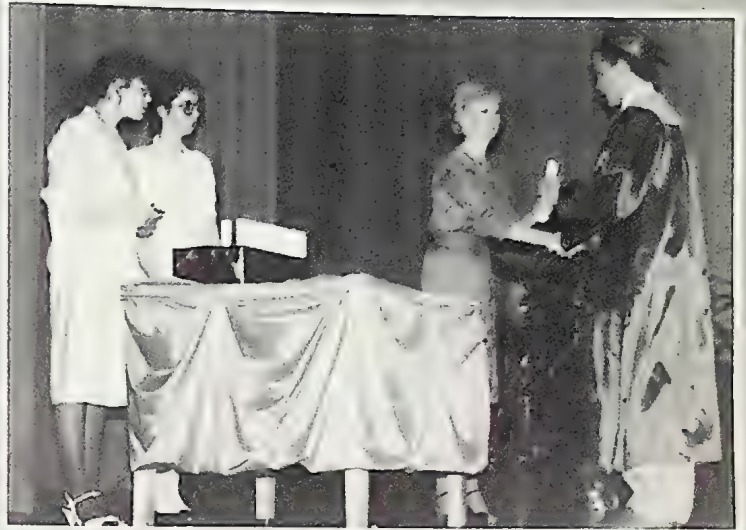

Some are like water,
Some are like the heat
Some are a melody and some are the beat
Sooner or later, they all will be gone
Won't they stay young?
It's so hard to get old without a cause
I don't want to perish like a fading horse
Youth's like diamonds in the sun
And diamonds are forever
So many adventures couldn't happen today
So many songs we forgot to play
So many dreams swinging out of the blue
We'll let them come true

Forever young . . .

Jana Vogelaar

COMMENCEMENT MAY 15, 1986

HONORARY GRAD PRESIDENT

'86

The theme for Grad '86 is forever young and comes from a song by the same name by Bob Dylan. In this song he laments about the temporariness of youth, the insecurity of the future, the growing up and growing away of friends and his hopes for the future. The song combines a mixture of emotions - sorrow, regret, happiness, satisfaction and hope.

I think these emotions are shared by many of the people at this year's graduation. This event is both happy and sad. We are all happy for the accomplishments of the graduates and yet at the same time we are saddened to see good friends leave to begin other stages in their lives. Bob Dylan expresses my feelings when he sings:

"... some are like the warmth, some are like the heat some are like the melody, some are the beat
sooner or later they all will be gone
why don't they stay young?"

We teachers at Eastglen will miss you and your significant personalities and yes it would be nice if you could stay young.

But graduation is not death of the end, it is only a new beginning. Before you new adventures - education, travel, careers, independence, marriage, family and on and on. And youth can be forever. To keep at it you only have to continue to live each new stage to the fullest. Many students comment that I am young in spirit and most days I would agree with them if that means I enjoy life.

I try to remember a quote by Bernard Baruch which I totally agree with. "To me old age is always 15 years older than I am." Many of the grads have probably decided that old age starts at thirty-four. I've decided 55 might not be too much fun while my dad thinks things might slow down at 85. If you keep giving yourself 15 more years you may find that you WILL be forever young.

If there is one verse from this year's Grad theme that you will remember I hope it will be this one:

"... so many songs we forget to play
so many dreams waiting out in the blue will let them come true"

Don't be sad about things you haven't done in your life or that part of your life is over. One of your dreams have already been accomplished tonight and hopefully - on your report card. But so many more of your dreams are waiting ahead. Work hard, commit yourself to accomplishing them, and they too will come true.

Mr. Parmenter

GRAD PRESIDENT '86

This last year has been a very eventful year. The joys and the worries of trying to put together this special day in our lives.

The job of Grad Class president, has given me a chance to meet new people and learn more about the people around me. I am very grateful to those who had enough confidence in me to give me the chance to make our grad one everyone will remember. I also wish to thank all those who were there to lend a hand. A special thanks goes out to Mr. Burrows and Mr. Hughes. We couldn't have done it without their help.

I hope this grad was one that is remembered by all. I want to wish everyone the best of luck in years to come.

VALEDICTORIAN '86

Fellow graduates, teachers, parents, honoured guests.

Tonight we have gathered to celebrate a special occasion. This marks the end and the beginning. The end of our high school years and the beginning of a new form of education. Whether it is out in the work force of advanced schooling we never stop learning . . . "we are forever young".

We have hopes, dreams, and goals which we are striving towards. However, in moments when we lost sight of these goals, there were parents, teachers, or friends who believed in us, and who we should give thanks. Our parents offered encouragement, support, guidance and at times acted like the "enforcer", but always for our best interests. The teachers taught, corrected and educated, and told us "they are only quizzes" and then gave us exams, which even they couldn't pass, in order to push us to our utmost potential.

But the people we will remember most are friends we have made at Eastglen. The friends with whom we have shared secrets and dreams, confided in and sought advice from, or just enjoyed their companionship. These are the same friends we had misunderstandings with and conflicts. With these friends, we had good times and bad times, but we will remember them as being the "best of times."

The Graduating Class of '86, I wish you all the happiness in the future and may all your dreams come true.

Thank you.

HISTORIAN

'86

Mr. Probert, Mr. Dymianiw, head table, guests, parents, special guests, teachers and fellow graduates. It has been an honor to be chosen the Class Historian for the graduating class of 1986.

Well, another year has come and gone. It's hard to believe that twelve years ago our parents were bundling us up preparing us for our first day of school. And that only three years ago, we were mere Grade tens shaking at the thought of what the Grade elevens and twelves most likely spent their entire summer plotting what to do to us during frosh week.

We've come a long way since then and created many memories on our journey. I can still recall, in vivid detail, how many of us in Grade ten met our teachers for the first time after we all got caught during the one and only food fight in the cafeteria. Needless to say, the teachers weren't too thrilled at the thought of having us for the next three years, but we calmed down after that . . . sort of. Human pinball; the wave; Mark Sharenbroich; suntanning 10, 20, 30 (which everyone got credits in); the phrase "Might be too"; fighting for seats in the bleachers to see the "floor hockey" intramurals, more commonly known as wrestling; the day the pigeon had Rich Whitford's name on it; football games; and the ski trips were only a few of the many highlights in our high school years. Somehow I don't think Chris Hrynyk's house will ever forget the students of Eastglen. After his party, the house was officially inducted into the Guinness Book of World Records for longest standing building after an earthquake of 8.5 on the Richter scale.

Sports, over the years, were classic cases of the good, the bad, and the ugly.

Good times were had by all and the spectators demonstrated this very well at some of the Senior Football games. In Grade ten the Boy's Handball team won first place in the City High School Invitational Team Handball tournament. The Senior Men's Soccer team in Grade ten also claimed an exciting first place win as they beat Scona in the city finals and in Grade eleven, the Waterpolo team clinched the City Championship.

The bad news was the sometimes heartbreaking losses of some of our teams. The Senior Football teams in Grade ten and eleven managed to make it to the playoffs but unfortunately were overcome before they could acquire their city titles. The Senior Girls' Volleyball team in Grade twelve lost out in the provincials and the Junior Boys' Soccer team in Grade eleven pulled off an incredible feat. They never lost a game by more than one point all season. The bad wasn't completely bad, though because valuable lessons were learned and all of Eastglen's teams came out winners no matter what their records were.

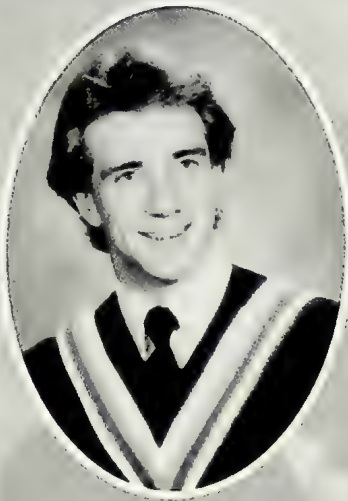

Of course, the ugly was the state in which some of the athletes bodies came home in after their games. (Right moms!) Long after the season was over, many of the players still had visible reminders in the patriotic colors of blue and gold.

But the athletics were a part of Eastglen that no one will ever forget. Those special moments were treasured by everyone and will keep on being treasured for years to come.

The famed and long awaited grad night is finally upon us. More than just great memories, though, will be left behind by the Graduating class of '86. Last year, half of the cost of a set of graduation caps and gowns were purchased as a gift to the school, by the class of '85. They purchased the backs, and since we were left with the remaining cost, we decided to give as our gift to the school the added benefit of the fronts.

But with all seriousness and sincerity, I would like to wish the entire graduating class of 1986 good luck in their future endeavors, whatever they may be. Keep the memories you created in Eastglen close to your heart and always remember to stay "forever young."

PROPHET '86

Vince Kehoe is announced as prophet. The Grad class of '86 cheers wildly as he approaches the podium. But Vinc's calm debonair style quiets them as he begins to speak:

Thank You:

Becoming Grad class prophet is truly an exciting honor. But with the glorious position comes the tremendous responsibility of finding a trustworthy method with which I can look into the future of some of my high school associates. I had to look to someone for help. Someone who has been a leader throughout my life and has had a predominant effect on the formation of my personality. So I phoned up Bub Slug and asked him for help. Bub told me to read "Beyond the Tenth" by Lobsang Rampa in order to learn how to Astral Travel.

Putting all my trust in Bub, I went out and bought the book and was soon a full-fledged pilot in the astral world. As my astral body stepped into the future, my first vision was of the dynamic heavy metal group consisting of Wade Franco, Dean Taylor, Kevin Raimundo and Tate Stuparyk. The group is on top of the charts with a song about their high school careers; the song is called "We're not gonna make it!"

In my next vision I see Donny Desrosier . . . Pardon me, I mean Donny "Rambo" Desrosier . . . Possessed by a Conan movie he has just seen, has decided to take worldly possessions from them and give them all a bat, turning Canada into a primitive combat zone or "playground" as Don prefers to call it. Next I see Doug Campbell proudly conducting the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. But Doug loses the prestigious position when he emblazes Led Zeppelin across the back of his tuxedo.

Also I see a very sad and dejected Tim Rains (otherwise known as r-r-r-ainsey). The economy has kind of got him down: collecting bottles just hasn't been the same since everyone has switched to aluminum cans!

And Mr. Probert has gotten a few of his favorite speeches together and recorded them on tape. Doctors everywhere have found excellent use for the tapes in curing their insomniac patients.

My next vision is of Esther Koenig. Esther is now president of the Levis and Strauss Company. She's living proof that you can do what you know nothing about.

Next I see Ed Schoonderbeek (sometimes called Dead Ed) getting tragically trampled by a pack of fast moving horses when he mistakes Northlands racetrack for a quiet country road. Poor Ed.

In my final gaze at this amazing future world, I see my good friend Roger Jevne. Rog has driven himself to the top of the business world. His company makes a product that competes with the likes of Kelloggs and Nabisco. Roger has named the product after himself: he calls them ego waffles!

My astral journey is now complete, and I would like to thank Bub Slug for helping me out. I would also like to thank those who voted for me as prophet: May your journeys through life be as enjoyable as you have made mine.

EDMONTON ESKIMOS FUMBLE (?) WITH EASTGLEN BASKETBALL

The Edmonton Eskimos visited Eastglen to play a couple of rounds of basketball with both our senior teams and a team of teachers. Needless to say, in just a few moments most realized that the Eskimos ARE all-round jocks by giving us a run for our money. Bleachers and sidelines full of onlookers Eastglen spent its lunch hour watching the perils of basketball and cheering on the teams who represented Eastglen. Thanks Esks!
